Statement of intent

This policy has been created with health and safety, value for money, and practicality at its heart. It has been designed to ensure pupils wear clothing conducive to a successful learning environment. It is important that our pupils feel a sense of belonging and community through a smart and practical uniform.

We also believe that a uniform allows all pupils, regardless of background, to feel equal to their peers and confident in their appearance. It is important that the agreed school sports specific attire is worn during PE

The Parkland Federation is committed to ensuring equality and value for money, and that no pupil is discriminated against due to their religion or belief, economic circumstances or social and cultural background – this policy contains provisions to meet these objectives.

Legislative framework

This policy has due regard to statutory legislation and national guidance, including, but not limited to the following:

- The Education and Inspections Act 2006
- The Education Act 2011
- The Human Rights Act 1998
- The Equality Act 2010
- The School Admissions Code 2014
- DfE (2013) 'School uniform'
- Children Act 2004

Cost and availability

Under The School Admissions Code 2014, the school must ensure that “policies around school uniform or school trips do not discourage parents/carers from applying for a place for their child”

The Parkland Federation is committed to fulfilling the DfE’s recommendations on costs and value for money. Every care has been taken to ensure that our uniforms are affordable for all current and potential pupils, and that the best value for money is secured through reputable suppliers. The Parkland Federation is flexible regarding where uniform is purchased to enable parents and carers to get the best possible value for money.

The school does not amend uniform requirements regularly and takes into account the views of parents and carers and pupils when considering changes to school uniforms.

Religious clothing

Some religions and beliefs require their members to conform to a specific dress code. The Parkland Federation does not discriminate against any religion or belief; however, the school must weigh the needs and rights of individual pupils against the cohesion and health and safety concerns of the entire school community. The school endeavours to allow religious requirements to be met.

1. DfE (2014) 'School Admissions Code', para 1.8: Parents' and carers' concerns and requests regarding religious clothing are dealt with on a case by-case basis by the Head of School and Board of Governors, and always in accordance with the school's Complaints Policy.

Equality

The school is required to ensure that the Uniform Policy does not discriminate unlawfully.

Complaints and Challenges

The school endeavours to resolve all uniform complaints and challenges locally and informally, in accordance with the school's Complaints Policy. When a complaint is received, the school works with parents/carers to arrive at a mutually acceptable outcome. Governors consider reasonable requests for flexibility to allow a pupil to accommodate particular social and cultural circumstances.

Non-compliance

If a pupil repeatedly breaches uniform rules, parents or carers will be contacted in order to resolve the situation as quickly as possible. These will be dealt with on a case-by-case basis. Non-compliance at Secondary School level will result in detentions and therefore we will endeavour to teach pupils to respect the school uniform requirements.
